On a cold autumn night, the bandit's leader and his men are shown up, and all is lost when their leader dies in combat. The priest finds the leader's wife and kid in the bandit's house, and offers them his protection. However, since he's a nun called the Lady Kobue, he's got his own set of problems, and the two of them eventually end up falling in love. Later, the couple meet a neighbor with a baby son who's lost his parents and desperately needs a home, and they decide to adopt it. The priest, who's officially been appointed as the village's guardian, gets a kick out of it, and name the boy Kenji. It turns out that there are other bandits living in the village, and are plotting to make Kenji their leader, the traitor of his adopted parents. Their leader is revealed to be a great hero who got his name from a single word... (Siebenjager) Nude dancing picture and clip of a sexy stripper club babe live then filmed. 01/14/11 - It's been a while since I posted, but I felt it was necessary because I felt so strongly about the subject matter. As you can see by the title of this post, I left off with a strange feeling of fear. I am not a racist. I don't hate anyone simply because of their race. I still have friends of all races. When I was younger, the people who would play the racist card would often tell me
