The state of Tamil Nadu has the details of the properties like the land, building, flat, etc. with the latest assessment stamp on them. The information about the said land and immovable properties is updated on the website of the Tamil Nadu government. The government intends to make the work process computerized and automated to ease the process of registering property in Tamil Nadu. All the details of the title of ownership are entered in the computer systems by the officers of the department for registration under the supervision of registrar. The information thus obtained is entered in the register of land and the name of the registered proprietor is endorsed. In brief, the ownership is effected on the registration of immovable properties. The title of the book is "KALIMATE 'AL VAHAHUKSHAM AL MAWAZER" in 15th century equivalent of our days it would be "Kalimat-e-Varaha". "Allah is the most Gracious, He is the most Merciful. He will Most Gracious and Most Merciful". Thus the Kalimat began. This book is a guide to recite this Kalimat once in a day. Generally in bakhshaor condition five Kalimat are read and this book provides these five Kalimat to be read in a week. These five Kalimat are for us only. I pray to Allah for the safety of all these refugees and every prayer Allah accepts them all. "Subhanallah wa Rabballahu wa Ala amanak" Kalima Prayer is one of the most important and profound verses of the Quran. It is a compilation of praise to the Lord. No one knows better the value of praise than Allah. In this verse, Allah specifically told the Prophet (peace be upon him) to ask for the forgiveness of Allah from his guests, he says "Whenever you see them, speak to them in the best way". In other words, Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) should have a good attitude in every situation. The Prophet (peace be upon him) also asks for forgiveness of Allah from guests, Insha'Allah he can also ask for forgiveness from his mother if he needs to.
